

Initiative for Faculty Success and Equity Workshop

August 19, 2024

Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center

Join us on August 19, 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., at the Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center for a faculty workshop on building knowledge and providing practical skills on how to better center equity and inclusion in the search process and career development with a focus on Penn State tenure-line faculty.

The Initiative for Faculty Success and Equity Workshop will include a hybrid (in person and live-streamed) morning session open to all Penn State faculty as well as in-person workshops in the afternoon, which will require registration.

Dr. Timothy Eatman, Educational Sociologist, Publicly Engaged Scholar and Inaugural Dean of the Honors Living-Learning Community and Professor of Urban Education at Rutgers University-Newark, will be the event's morning keynote speaker.

Lunch will be provided for all in-person participants and the day will wrap up with networking and cocktails.

Register here
<https://redcap.ctsi.psu.edu/surveys/?s=WFRKF397A34YKTYD>

Learn more here
<https://ssri.psu.edu/events/ifse>

Sponsored by the Social Science Research Institute (SSRI), the Office of the Senior Vice President for Research's Interdisciplinary Research Institutes, and the Office of the Vice Provost for Educational Equity.

